The show is on the Comedy Channel. It starts at 10 p.m. (CT), and as far as I can tell, it will be repeated the following day.

I agree with Kev!! Short but sweet!! I thought it was really fun to see the two of them interact. Bea and Jon both cracked me up. Like when Jon joked about Billy and Bea said something like "you better take that back, he might be watching." HA!

We'll anyhow, it was great.

Hope to see her on more talk shows...she's so adorable. You can tell she's very shy - so charming.

Love you Bea!!

I thought it was funny when John said Estelle got drunk during the shoot of the golden girls and Ms. Bea says shush and puts her finger to her mouth. Lol we'll talk to you all later, Rebecca.

- I'm not sure where you can buy it online using a cheque. I'm going to buy 'Bea Arthur on Broadway' from Amazon.co.uk, it came into stock available to order yesterday, I've got to have it :) Maybe you could ask a local music store to order it in for you? I was going to ask my local friendly retailer to order it for me, but I've decided to buy it directly online since I have a credit card.

- Maybe one of your local retail outlets will order the CD for you. If not, you might be able to get the CD through eBay. Believe it or not, I've seen several at eBay; I don't know if any are available at the moment, though. Sometimes eBay merchants will take checks or money orders.

So I want have to buy the cd and will record it, lol they will never know. But it will be weeks or months probably but I can wait.

Hello!

About Bea on the Daily Show - although her appearance was brief, it was so wonderful! It really seemed as if she loved being there - being as she is such a big fan of the show and all. It was great seeing her - very enjoyable! :)

Also, just want to add that I'm VERY excited because it looks as if I will be able to get up to NYC in early May to see Bea on Broadway!! (A dream come true - I can understand how you are feeling Christina!) When I secure my tickets...then I'll really allow myself to go crazy! :)

Take care everyone,

Hi all,

This is my first post, but I've been lurking here for awhile. I just finally got my name and profile set up, so I'm ready to join the conversation. You can view my profile, but just to introduce myself, my name is Chris, I'm 25, and I'm from Birmingham, Alabama.

I've been watching the Golden Girls since 1987. I have written two letters to Bea (with two responses! - a typed letter, then a signed photo), but I've never gotten to meet her. I went to Savannah in June of 2001 to see her show, and I'm hoping to get up to NY this summer since the show's been extended.

I found about about this group after visiting Kevin's website. I'm looking forward to discussing Bea with all of you.

Does anyone else just think it's hysterical when Bea says, "That afternoon I emoted... I mean, my bodice heaved!" That's one of the funniest things on the cd to me. My favorite songs are Fifty-Percent, and Where Do You Start?

Take care,
Chris

I should say Hi too. I joined about a week or so ago but haven't yet posted. My name is Melinda and I'm 20 years old. I wrote to Bea and did get a signed photo back. I've seen her mostly on Golden Girls and Maude. My mom saved me the recent TV guide article but I may have to order a back issue as I may have inadvertently thrown it out. I'm a college student in southern Indiana and my favorite GG episode is the final episode.

Yes, I think Bea is hilarious when she says that - it's a great visual!

rue2blanche

Hello everyone! I got this from my friend and thought it was so true and pretty and thought you guys would enjoy reading it. Talk to you all later, Rebecca

IF I KNEW

If I knew it would be the last time
That I'd see you fall asleep,
I would tuck you in more tightly and pray the Lord, your soul to keep.
If I knew it would be the last time
that I see you walk out the door,
I would give you a hug and kiss
and call you back for one more.
If I knew it would be the last time
I'd hear your voice lifted up in praise,
I would video tape each action and word,
so I could play them back day after day.

If I knew it would be the last time,
I could spare an extra minute to stop and say "I love you,"
instead of assuming you would KNOW I do.
If I knew it would be the last time
I would be there to share your day,
Well I'm sure you'll have so many more,
so I can let just this one slip away.
For surely there's always tomorrow
to make up for an oversight,
and we always get a second chance to make everything just right.
There will always be another day
to say "I love you,"
And certainly there's another chance to say our "Anything I can do?"
But just in case I might be wrong,
and today is all I get,
I'd like to say how much I love you and I hope we never forget.

Tomorrow is not promised to anyone,
to young or old alike,
And today may be the last chance
you get to hold your loved one tight.
So if you're waiting for tomorrow,
why not do it today?

For if tomorrow never comes,
you'll surely regret the day,

That you didn't take that extra time for a smile, a hug, or a kiss and you were too busy to grant someone,
what turned out to be their one last wish.
So hold your loved ones close today,
and whisper in their ear,

Tell them how much you love them
and that you'll always hold them dear
Take time to say "I'm sorry,"
"Please forgive me," "Thank you," or
"It's okay."
And if tomorrow never comes,
you'll have no regrets about today.
