...until I get to see Bea again - this time on Broadway!!!

I can't wait!!!!!!

I should be getting my poster from Triton Gallery in the mail any day now, too :)

Wheeeee!

Hope everyone is doing well!

Hey Melinda... I'm from Northern Indiana. My favorite episode is the final episode too. It was just too sad at the ending where they are all crying. :- (Anyways...welcome to the club!

I, too, received a type card from her last year.

Mine is on Tiffany and Co. paper with her name engraved in red on the front...and says exactly what someone else wrote awhile ago...I can't remember it line for line now...but it's something like "Thank you for your kind words. Fans like you make it all worth while" (it's a little longer than that, but you get the idea)..

I was just so surprised to receive anything back from her in the first place! Very classy woman :)

Having seen Bea's show a couple of times and after listening to the CD many times I can truly say that my favorite songs are Some People and Pirate Jenny. The emotion and energy she puts into the songs are unbelievable. I also like Where Do You Start but it is so sad to see her sing that one as well as It Never Was Him.

Going to see her again on March 24th.

This is so strange...I just got cast in the play "The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940". I don't know if any of you know this play - but it's a very funny who-done-it...I'm playing Helsa the german maid who, as it turns out is really a female impersonator, who explains that "his" most famous impressions are of Marlene Dietrich, Josephine Baker, and ...Lotte Lenya!!!

Now, before I saw Bea's show - I had never even HEARD of Lotte Lenya. So it was so fabulous when I read that because I was like "Wow - I know who that is and what she sounds like!!!" (thanks to the Threepenny Opera soundtrack...) Life is very amusing sometimes :) Thanks, Bea!

I haven't posted on this yet so, here I go! My favorite songs in Bea's show are FIRST Pirate Jenny and SECOND Some People. Actually, Some People and Where Do You Start are probably tied for second with me. I love the way she gets emotional when she sings songs like Where Do You Start. You can just tell it's so straight from the heart. Pirate Jenny is my favorite because I remember when I first saw the show and she was singing that song, I just remember being so very into that moment that I practically had chills going up my spine. It was so enthralling. Just awesome. Then when the song was over and the lights went completely dark....!

"And on it is me".....

Hi Jessica!

I definitely agree with you about her singing those songs straight from the heart. It's very touching.

And the more I listen to "Pirate Jenny" on my CD..the better I like it. I can't wait to see her perform it again live.

Also looking forward to hearing the Sophie Tucker story/joke...I don't recall that being a part of the show when I saw it in Thousand Oaks...

Oh this is cool, I can't believe it but watching an episode of Designing Women that I have never seen. And there playing Mame lol and Dixie is singing Bosom Buddies. How cool and it just made me think of Ms. Bea and Lucille Ball. I really think Lucille was better in it then Angela Lansbury even though I like them both well in Lucille case I liked her. Actually her and Ms. Bette Davis were my first idols in tv. Well see yea fiveninegal, do you mind if I ask where you were able to find a recording of "Completely Yours"?

Hello again.

(I assume you were referring to a second-hand or auction source. The title has been out of print for a couple years. Though some sites such as Amazon still list it, after you order, you receive notice that it is no longer available.)

Hi there,

That's funny you mention that because just yesterday I received a very sad notice from Amazon saying they weren't able to get it :(

So, I guess Ebay is my next step if I want it.

I was very sad when I got that message!

- Lifetime was just airing a whole marathon of Mad About You today (Monday) because they are introducing it to their lineup. It actually is a pretty funny show when given a chance! :) but don't worry, according to the site Golden Girls should be back on the air tomorrow at its usual times.
- It was nice seeing Maude aired on TV Land, even though I have those episodes taped! Bea is so great. I wish TV Land would add Maude back to their schedule, not just on their "Sunday Best". Oh well, I miss it, but for now my tapes will have to suffice!

It looks like Comedy Central is giving us yet another Bea TV appearance to be thankful for. Bea is scheduled to appear on Frank DeCaro's "Big 0" Oscar special, which will be televised on Comedy Central on March 20th at 10:30 p.m. (CT), right after "The Daily Show."

This page has a video preview of the show. Yes, it does include Bea.

Hi Christina! I completely agree - Bea has such amazing talent. Although Maude and Dorothy are both typically considered to be very strong women, they are very DIFFERENT characters and Bea plays each of them so convincingly! :) As you said, its so interesting to watch them back to back. Bea is simply great...I don't know how else to describe her!
 Well take care everyone!
