Charla,

Bea took her one-woman show to Phoenix several years ago. Lucky for you, she'll be back in the area in February 2006, the month she's scheduled to perform in Scottsdale. Is that close enough for you?

For more information on the Scottsdale show and other upcoming performances, check this page at Kevin's Web site: http://www.beatricearthur.com/attb-tourinfo.php

#2324 From: ironicwit Date: Fri Oct 14, 2005 4:43 pm Subject: Another Salem Interview Plus a TV Land Bonus

Here's another interview that Bea did to promote her performance in Salem, Oregon:

http://www.portlandmercury.com/portland/Content?oid=35024&category=34029

I haven't yet seen the episode of "TV Land Confidential" that's airing this week. However, I'm told that Bea (or should I say Maude?) appears in it.

http://www.tvland.com/originals/tvlandconfidential/index.jhtml

I think that the episode will be repeating several times over the next few days. However, the schedule at the TV Land Web site indicates that the repeats are of "TV Land Confidential" episode three rather than episode five (the one that's supposed to be running this week). I suspect that this is a mistake. The showtimes that I found are as follows:

- Saturday, Oct. 15: 11:30 a.m. & 9 p.m. (EDT)
Monday, Oct. 17: 12 midnight (i.e., at end of Sunday) and 9:30 a.m.
Tuesday, Oct. 18: 11:30 p.m.
Wednesday, Oct. 19: 5:30 a.m.

Also, the TV Land Web site includes episode five bonus footage of Bea. You can see it here - http://www.tvland.com/mm/b_00006357.html. (Note: I haven't been able to watch it.)

Subject: The Golden Girls Turn 20

Lifetime TV is celebrating the 20th anniversary of "The Golden Girls" by showing 20 episodes on November 11th. Special programming will include the series pilot and finale along with "The Golden Girls: Their Greatest Moments."

Audience participation is welcome. You can nominate your favorite episode at Lifetime's "Golden Girls" message board. Who knows? You might even see your comments and screenname on national TV.
<http://boards.lifetimetv.com/WebX?14@218.0jndbMnwQaN.0@.ee89939>

If you're a "Golden Girls" expert, Lifetime wants to hear from you. "Tell us how much you love the Girls and how you're going to prove it, and you could get a chance to tell the whole country on national TV. Send us an e-mail at casting@cannedfilms.com. You must be available for a shoot in New York City on October 24."

I love The Golden Girls! They are hilarious! I love all of them. Wish they could keep The Golden Girls and The Golden Palace both on Lifetime. I heard Maude is coming to DVD. Season 4 of The Golden Girls is coming out, it may already be out. I loved Dorothy on TGG. I loved her sarcastic remarks and attitude.

If you'd like to know what all Lifetime has planned for the 20th anniversary of "The Golden Girls," take a gander at this news release:

<http://www.prnewswire.com/cgi-bin/stories.pl?ACCT=104&STORY=/www/story/10-31-2005/0004204413&EDATE=>

Among the highlights of special programming planned for November 11: a roundtable discussion featuring Mo Rocca, Judy Gold, and the author of "Thank You for Being a Friend: A Golden Girls Trivia Book."

Note to Kevin: That Coco Peru appearance you mentioned at your Web site is a done deal; it was held last January. How did we ever miss that? (FYI: I'd never heard of Coco Peru till now.)

Here's something else I've got to share with y'all. But first, a little background info is order. Recently, it was suggested that "Time" magazine's Person of the Year should be Mother Nature and that(who else but our beloved) Bea Arthur should play the part.

A recent gossip column at mediabistro.com pointed out the resemblance between Bea and the actress who portrayed Mother Nature in margarine commercials of the 1970s:

Judy Evans was the costume designer for "The Golden Girls." So, I imagine that she's the one responsible for the Dorothy Zbornak look.

I don't know if Bea ever designed any of her costumes; however, I'm under the impression that Maude Findlay's long vests reflected Bea's real-life wardrobe at the time. In a 1973 interview published in "Good Housekeeping," Bea commented, "I will wear that Maude midi-vest costume until I lose 20 pounds. I have an enormous behind. For Maude, I told them, 'You want somebody thin, you get Eve Arden. If you want a fat genius, take me.'"
