Wow, I'm just overcome. Rue (Blanche) died today. May she rest in peace. We've lost one Golden Girl per year since 2008. First Estelle (Sophia) in 08', then Bea (Dorothy) in 09', now Rue (Blanche) in 10'. I'm just speechless and heartbroken. BUT, I'm sure that they're in a better place, not dealing with the issues of health they had to here on Earth, so that comforts me. So I say, rest in peace our trio of Golden Girls!! I'm sure you all are "out on the lanai in the sky" !!!

I'm from Australia, and being so far seems to make the tragedy of Rue's untimely passing even deeper. I was in New York in April, and dined at Sardi's on Broadway where I checked out all the caricatures. Funnily enough, the very first one I saw on peering into the window was Bea Arthur's! I took that as a great sign. I then got into a conversation with the owner who took me around to Rue's caricature, which was placed right above her favourite spot in the restaurant. He told me that he hadn't seen her in quite a while. Little did we know that we would lose her less than two months later. I knew that Rue was unwell, but I didn't expect her to go so soon. It really feels like a big part of my childhood goes with each girl's passing. But I hope that Bea, Rue and Estelle are together somewhere eating cheesecake and having a ball. Love to the girls and to all you great and loyal fans from Simon of Sydney. Å there's only one season on DVD... Season one.

 I've heard that there is a copy on eBay autographed by Bea Arthur.
 If I am not wrong, go to

 There's a link to the auction.

I hope that is the right website

Only season 1 has been released, but unofficially, you can get them all, from various places.

I've seen people selling sets on:
www.ioffer.com

I can't recommend any particular seller, (it's been a while since I bought mine, and can't remember who from).

I don't believe there's a complete set which includes all 141 episodes--they seem to be missing two or three eps, usually, even if they claim it's complete. Also, some people have episodes that are cut by a minute or two, probably recorded from TVland, etc. However, I'm happy to have that much!

Or you can watch quite a number of the eps on Youtube.
<http://www.youtube.com/user/TheMaudeShow>

(He hasn't posted what I consider the best ep, "The Analyst" from season 4.)

Good luck! And please post your thoughts and impressions here. I'd love to see some discussion of Maude!

Christina

Rats! Not in my area! (Pittsburgh.)

Will someone record these? It would be great to have the missing eps available, perhaps on YouTube, or some other place.

This is excellent news for those who can watch it.

Hi Guys,

Hope you're all well.

Does anyone have any idea where the unforgettable and irreplaceable Bea has been laid to rest?

I'm visiting the States soon from Australia, and would love to pay my respects.

Thanks,

Simon :)

Hi Simon,

I checked a site called www.findagrave.com and they had Bea listed that she was cremated and her ashes were given to a family member or a friend. So sorry, but I guess there is no grave to visit.

Dear David,

Thank you for responding so readily concerning my question about the FabTV song that Bea Arthur sang. However, I do not see any closing credits on that piece. It just says Sweet Dreams Bea.

Oh, well, thank you, just the same. God bless!

It is indicated on the closing credit. I heard that he committed suicide in 1979.

Does anyone know where that song is from? The Way I See It...I would love to know who wrote it?

Christina,
 Bea is wearing a red dress when she is singing this song.Â The line that is repeated is "the way I see it.."Â I would love to know where this song comes from, who wrote, etc.

Peace,
 Lucille Aliperti

Â
 Is there a link for this?

There is a song of this title on Youtube. If the one you refer to is a different version, I'd love to hear that, too.

Dear David,

Thank you for responding so readily concerning my question about the FabTV song that Bea Arthur sang. However, I do not see any closing credits on that piece. It just says Sweet Dreams Bea.

Oh, well, thank you, just the same. God bless!

Gratefully,
Lucille Aliperti

I found the answer to my question. The Way I See It was written by Cy Coleman and it is from Home Again, Home Again.

Thanks all!

Lucille,

According to a comment on the Youtube video, the song is by Cy Coleman, from Home Again, Home Again, and is called "The Way I See It."

She performed it on the Beatrice Arthur Special from 1980, as the final number in the show.

I just discovered a few things about both shows they are:
 Rue McLenahan co starred.
 Herb Edelman guest starred(his role was recurring on TGG).
 Bea sang Hard Hearted Hannah.
 She left after 6 years.

I almost forgot: Both shows had a doctor for a neighbor and the both had spinoffs.

Golden Girls lasted seven years, not six. 1985-1992.
