Why is it that everyone must comment on Bea's appearance. She looks really good for her age. On or off screen. I saw her in person and her skin is gorgeous. Yeah she may have some wrinkles and bags under the eyes, but the women is almost 80 yrs old. And she is in great shape. thinner than she has ever been. If you know anything about the lady, you know that she has been known not to give a darn about being made up all the time. She is a very real person. And as has been said in this room before, when she did GG she 60 playing 50. As far as Malcom in the Middle, I believe they wanted a rougher not made up look for the character. Plus that show is often filmed in naturaul light. Sorry to go off on this subject but, as you can see I am passionate about it!

I have to say that I agree with you Andrew. I saw (met) her in person too. Up close! I can honestly say that I was completely amazed at how truly wonderful she looked for being so close to 80 years old! She is amazing. As for her being thin, I can confirm that. When I hugged her, I can still remember how thin she felt. Not that that's a bad thing though! It seemed to me that she was in very good health for her age.
 Anyway, please check out the photos taken of her and me here in the photos section if you haven't already. Doesn't she look awesome!

I have to agree with folks - why is everyone so hung up on appearance? I have also met her face to face and thought she looked great. Sure she does look older than she did on Maude but that was thirty years ago! I think she has aged gracefully and is very elegant looking - hey she could be like some of them and have her face redone - but she has chosen to go naturally and I have a lot of respect for her for that decision. I can only hope that when I am her age I will look half as good.

i absolutely agree Bea doesn't look bad at she has aged gracefully she is the oldest of the golden girls isn't she since she is 78 years old the episode of malcolm in the middle that she made a guest appearance on i nearly didn't recognize her she didn't look like gnarled and withered old woman she just looked much older than she is in that episode honestly she looks great for a person in there late 70s

Yes ms. Betty will be 80 tomorrow and she doesn't look it at all just like them all. They all are still sexy, lol. I saw a pic of ms. betty in the year of 63 and she looks about the same now. But maybe a little wrinkles and some grey hair which actually looks white. I hope she has a fabulous birthday that goes for them all. For mrs. Rue's is in Feb, Bea's in May, and mrs. Estelle's in July.

- I also have no idea why people care so much about apperance. When I Met Bea and hugged her it felt like hugging a 50 year old, she is in amazing shape, and her face even looks amazing, i didn't notice any bags under her eyes. She is just Remarkable!!! You gotta LOVE that lady!! :)

- A reunion is out of the question. In numerous interviews over the past few months, Bea has pooh-pooed the idea -- repeatedly citing the Mary Tyler Moore-Valerie Harper reunion as an example of why she won't do one with the other Girls. Besides, Estelle Getty is in poor health. For several years, she has suffered from a condition akin to Parkinson's Disease, so her mobility is said to be quite limited. (There may be other complicating factors as well. I have no idea if this is true, but "Entertainment Tonight" reported recently that Estelle has Alzheimers and requires round-the-clock nursing care.) With Estelle out of the picture, it's doubtful that anyone could get Bea to change her mind about this. The Dorothy-Sophia relationship appears to have been one of the highlights of her "Golden Girls" experience.

I may be in the minority here, but I don't think a Golden Girls reunion would be a practical idea. As ironicwit pointed out, Estelle Getty is not in the greatest of shape. Not to mention, it has been about ten years since Golden Girls ended its run and Estelle's character would be about what, 100?

Besides, reunion shows are often times depressing. I remember one of the Walton reunion movies. The lady that played Grandma had had a stroke and was not in the best of health. She did the show anyway. The man that had played Grandpa had died, but the remaining characters wanted him mentioned. Grandma, even though she couldn't speak, pointed to his picture on the wall and grunted, then started crying. As a Waltons fan, it was really sad.

I am glad that Bea has gotten herself back out there though. I can't wait to see her host her favorite shows on Lifetime. Someone said they thought she did the commercial from her dressing room, but I think it is just supposed to be a dressing room, to promote her tour.

Well I have watched the other girls intimate portrait and usually ms. Bea is on them saying something more then once, but I heard on tv she saying the she doesn't want people to know everything and to explain all her life. I mean that's why with her new show she doesn't really say anything personal about her life. Which I would love to see one of her, but I understand what she says about not letting everyone in on her life and things that have happened to her.

I have to agree here. A reunion would be great but, the idea really wouldn't work. I mean, Estelle could not be in it at all. And I dunno what the premis of the show would be. The only thing that would be cute is if the girls all met somewhere for cheesecake and did a reminicing episode like they had done in the past. As far as Bea and the Intimate Portrait how many times must we go over this. It isnt gonna happen. she is a very very private person and I know she wouldn't want her life talked about. And rightfully so! This isnt directed at anyone but, I really wish people would do a little more research on this stuff!

That's great Mike and it's true she is a private person and I don't blame her. Who wants to tell everyone secrets and stuff. I bet that was so great to talk with her. I would love to meet one of my idols one day. Which is only about 6 lol. Mrs. Rue, ms. Betty, ms. Bea, ms. Brynn Thayer, mrs. Dixie Carter, and mrs. Delta Burke which she was born in Orlando 5hrs. away from where I live. I first loved ms. bette davis and mrs. lucille ball but I still love to watch them. Especially hush.. hush sweet charolte and what ever happened to baby jane these are bette davis roles and she was so talented. I still watch I Love Lucy reruns, lol.

Love your favorites - Bette Davis was always one of my favorites - for over 30 years - I even met her some 20 years ago when I was in college - she lived in my state and back in the 70's my husband did some video work for her at her home in Connecticut. She was an awesome actor and there is noone out there today who can match her talent for drama.

I have been watching postings on this subject for quite a while, but I haven't found any messages with any details, but I finally found them! The CD is being done by DRG Records and is due out February 12th. The CD was recorded from the West Palm Beach show on December 12-13. When the CD is available, you most likely will be able to purchase it from DRG directly, as they make alot of CD's for Broadway musicals. You can go to their site at:

CANNOT WAIT!!!!!!! :)

Thanks again for the info!
