Subject: Bea Arthur on Today with Des and Mel \(UK\) Screenshots!

Bea Arthur gave her first television interview since touching down in the UK, today, on Today with Des and Mel. She was DELIGHTFUL! She talked about the Golden Girls, one of her favourite moments being the time she and Estelle dressed up as Sonny and Cher for the beauty pageant at Shady Pines.

She also discussed her one woman show and the audience, as ever, loved her. She has a knack of making them feel like old friends as she often looks to them, as if she's talking to them directly and individually. I love it when she does that.

She also swore on national television. She called some popular Spanish resorts "Shiy!" :-))

For those outside of the UK (or for those who just missed it) you can see screenshots of the interview @ <http://www.thegoldengirls.com/Savoy/savoy.html> :)

Hopefully Bea will be involved in more UK television appearances and I will let you all know of anything coming up!

Subject: Off topic :: John & Johnny another sad day in TV land :(

O why do I go to bed with Fox News on every night... usually wake up to something bad every morning... today as you may or may not know yet we lost two very special people. Johnny Cash, which was unexpected, yet because of his age, health, and recent loss of his wife, no completely a surprise. But, then hearing John Ritter died... blows my mind. So young, such a nice guy in all aspects... sickens me. I don't know what else to say at this point other than I'm in shock... as I'm sure most of you are too.

I hate to post bad news, but I know that you all surely liked both of them too... how could you not!

Take care all,
 Kev.

Yes Kev, so sad. I had heard about Johnny Cash but knew nothing about John Ritter...until I was at work tonight and I heard my co-worker talking about Three's Company. Then when I asked her why she was talking about the show she said that John Ritter died (on his daughter's 4th birthday). I was shocked, as I still am. I'm too young to have grown up with Three's Company but I have come to like the show a lot by watching it in reruns. John was so funny in that show. It's just too bad.

A review by a fan, who enjoyed the show in the States. (It isn't clear whether he actually saw the show in London before writing this.)
<http://www.londontheatre.co.uk/londontheatre/reviews/beaarthur03.htm>

For subscribers to the Insider's Guide of the "Evening Standard" (you can sign up for a 30-day free trial):

The review, which I've not seen, starts this way:

"If there is one thing Bea Arthur wants her audience to know, it is that she was not just a Golden Girl. But this misguided nostalgia trip about her career launches into two of the most pointless hours the West End has seen in many a sad week, says Fiona Mountford..."
