The song you're referring to may be "Fifty Percent," which is from the musical "Ballroom." Billy Goldenberg wrote the music to it.

The dates you're seeing in the official show site refer to the national tour (or the out-of-town tryouts). The dates for Broadway or London have not been announced yet, so none of us know when -- or even if -- Billy and Bea will be on Broadway.

After seeing her show 3 times, I seem to think the song you're talking about is "Where Do You Start".

Maribeth, I hope that you do get some "quality time" with Bea tomorrow night. If you do, perhaps you could ask about her future plans. For a long time, we've all read that she hoped to take the show to NYC or London in the spring. In one of her most recent interviews, she is quoted as saying that they are shopping for a theatre in New York. I wonder if this means that London is out of the picture for the time being.
